

Starting a Family Tree
August 2, 2012 – 7:00 PM

Genealogist Fred Boyle will offer instructions on starting a family tree at the August 2nd meeting of the Waterborough Historical Society. References will be made to his extensive research while working on his forthcoming book “Early Families of Waterborough, Maine.”

The meeting will begin at 7 pm at the Carle’s Corner Museum near the intersection of Town House Road and Route 5 in Waterboro Center.

The program is open to the public free of charge, and refreshments will be served.

For details, call Jim Carll at 247-5878.
