

Christmas Caroling at Old Corner Church – Sunday December 4, 2011

Enjoy old-fashioned Christmas caroling at the historic Old Corner Church, corner of West Road and Federal Street in Waterboro, Sunday afternoon, December 4th at 1:30. A song leader will inspire the caroling and encourage the children to join in. Hot cider, hot chocolate and confections will be served. This carol sing is really old –fashioned, so please dress warmly. The church is handicapped accessible.

For more information, call Bud Jamieson at 247-3635.