

Waterborough Historical Society

NEWS RELEASE

The Waterborough Historical Society held its 5th. Annual Chili, Chowda & Apple Dessert contest on Sat., Sept. 14, 2013 at the Grange Hall, where judges and attendees enjoyed tasting over 20 entries.

The winners were:

Chili: 1st. Corey Woodsome – Woody’s Chili; 2nd. Jodie Dyer; 3rd. Ken Matheson

Chowda: 1st. Corey Woodsome – Woody’s Chowda; 2nd. Jeannie Grant; 3rd. Gary Moreau

Apple Dessert: 1st. Jodie Dyer – Nana’s Apple Squares; 2nd. Annette Owen; 3rd. Christopher Anastopolous

The following were judges for the event: Gary Prokey, Rebecca Higgins, Anne Haskell, Nancy Brandt, Neil Haskell, Paula Nadeau, Gary Pennell, Heidi Card and Cory Fredericks.

The winner of the 50/50 raffle was Peg Walker.

The Society would like to thank the following sponsors: Lakeside Market, The Maine Real Estate Network-Dianne Holden and Foglio, Inc. for their continued support of the event.

This annual fund raiser helps the Society to maintain the properties that the Society either owns or is caretaker of, thereby preserving Waterboro’s past for the future. The Society would like to acknowledge their appreciation to all of those who participated by cooking, serving and/or attending the event.

9-15-13