

Singer/Songwriter Jonathan Sarty in Concert
Saturday, June 21, 2014 @ 7:30 PM
Waterboro Grange Hall on West Road

The Waterborough Historical Society is pleased to announce that singer/songwriter Jonathan Sarty will be performing in concert at the Grange Hall on Saturday, June 21, 2014 at 7:30 PM. Jonathan has performed throughout the USA presenting his Americana style, a blend of Classic American, Roots Country and Folk Rock to audiences of all ages. He has worked with artists in the studio and on the stage from L.A. to Nashville and throughout New England. Among other projects, Jonathan is founder of the longstanding old time country and honky tonk group the White Mountain Boys and New England based record label, booking and publishing company White Mountain Music Group. He is also co-founder of a creative concept New England based radio variety show call 'Cold River Radio' on WMWV 93.5 FM, featuring exclusively New England based artist, performers, authors and storytellers, that is recorded live before a studio audience at Theater in the Wood, Intervale, NH.

Jonathan's performance will benefit the Waterborough Historical Society that works to preserve Waterboro's past for the future. Tickets are $15 per person.

Tickets can be purchased at Woodsome's Feeds and Needs on Route 202 in East Waterboro and Woody's Sports Grille on West Road in South Waterboro.
