

A History of Crime and Punishment in York County Thursday, September 4th at 7 p.m.

Allison Williams will speak on crime and punishment in York County, tracing how our ancestors handled punishment from the old Whipping Tree to the latest York County Jail, at the upcoming meeting of the Waterborough Historical Society. It will be held at the Grange Hall, 31 West Road in South Waterboro, Thursday, September 4th at 7 p.m.

The public is invited and refreshments will be served.

For more information, call Jim Carll at 247-5878.