

Dramatic Presentation at Camp Laughing Loon
Thurs. August 5 @ 7 PM

The August 5th program of the Waterborough Historical Society will feature Sallie Huot presenting herself as Vergn Hewes, remembered fondly by women who as young girls spent summers at Camp Laughing Loon on Little Ossipee Lake.

“Miss Hewes,” speaking in 1956, will tell about her childhood, schooling and her long association with the YWCA camp.

The meeting will begin at 7 p.m. at The Lodge at Camp Laughing Loon, Laughing Loon Lane, in Waterboro Center.

The public is invited, and refreshments will be served.
