The 111-year-old one-room Chicopee Schoolhouse in Buxton will be the topic of Lou and Lucille Emery's presentation to the Waterborough Historical Society on Thursday, June 2, at 7 pm at the Carle's Corner Museum, adjacent to the Town Hall in Waterboro Center.

The schoolhouse, also known as the N. C. Watson School, named for the father of the donor of $50 toward its construction in 1900, has been restored by the Buxton-Hollis Historical Society.

The public is invited, and refreshments will be served.
