

WORKSHOP: SQUARE FOOT GARDENING
Saturday, May 7, 2016 – 10:00am-12:00pm

The Waterboro Community Garden is hosting a workshop on Square Foot Gardening, conducted by Judi Carll, on Saturday, May 7, from 10 - 12 am, at the site of the community gardens next to the Town Hall.

If it is rainy, a shorter version of the workshop will be held indoors in the old Waterboro Town Hall.

These workshops are free and open to anyone who is interested in learning more about this innovative and efficient approach to gardening.

Come join us rain or shine!
