

SELECTMEN'S MEETING MINUTES
9/10/91

Regular meeting of the Waterboro Board of Selectmen.

PRESENT: Chairman Dennis G. Abbott, John C. Monteith, Frank R. Allen, Jr.
Also present was Selectmen's Assistant Dwayne G. Morin.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEES:

Dwayne Morin presented the Board with a contract from DEP and one for CMP which the Board signed. The Board discussed and voted to have signs out front of the office building with meeting dates and times. The Board also discussed the new weekly paper Smart Shopper. Due to the prices and the layout, the Board voted that from this date all advertising for the Town will be put into the Smart Shopper not the Budget Saver. Dwayne also talked to the Board the reason why insurance bids are not being sent out. Chm. Abbott told Dwayne that las year 24 bids were sent out and only two companies presented a bid and the Board went with their same insurance company due to the bid prices. Chm. Abbott also told Dwayne that if there is an insurance company that feels they can give the Town a better deal, then they are welcomed to come in and look over the policies and give a proposal to the Board.

NEW BUSINESS:

LIQUOR LICENSE HEARING: Chm. Abbott opened up the hearing for a Liquor License hearing for the Waterboro House of Pizza for a full time malt & Vinous license. Sel. Monteith made the motion to approve the application. Sel. Allen seconded. Voted, passed. The Board signed and approved the application.

DISCUSSION:

Tax bills will be printed on the 29th of Sept. and mailed by Oct. 1st.

The Board voted to change Council Meeting to the 24th due to a majority of the Board will not be present.

Board voted approval for use of the Towns PA system for opening ceremonies of the Youth Football League with the stipulation that the system is to be returned by Monday.
