APPOINTMENTS

Mike DeAngelis addressed the board to request the possibility of being granted the ability to open a community store in Lake Arrowhead. Patti stated that the zone does not permit this and Selectman Woodsome stated that they would have to change the zone as well as requiring a sub-division change and there are actually four (4) sub-divisions within Lake Arrowhead Community. Selectman Fay stated that there was an attempt a number of years ago to open a store and it was denied as it is spot zoning. Mike explained that this is an effort to defray costs and would like to look at how or if this can be done. Stated that this is an effort to save members money. Mike stated that he will spend some time with the CEO looking at this issue.
